Market Overview

The corrugated packaging market is thriving, reaching $7.1 billion in 2023 and expected to grow 10.1% annually through 2032. This surge is driven by factors like rapid industrialization in developing economies. As these economies expand, the demand for packaged goods rises, leading to a need for more corrugated packaging.

There's a double win with corrugated boxes: they're eco-friendly and cost-effective. Made from recycled paper, they're a sustainable alternative to plastic. Plus, their lightweight design lowers transportation costs, making them a great option for businesses.

India's corrugated box market exemplifies this growth. Valued at $7.5 billion in 2024, it's expected to reach $16.9 billion by 2032, with a strong CAGR of 10.1%. This boom is fueled by India's booming e-commerce sector. The easy availability of products online has led to a surge in online shopping, creating a high demand for secure and reliable packaging solutions. With major international e-commerce players entering India, this trend is expected to continue, further propelling the corrugated box market.
